Announcement on the Renaming of Low-Code Interactive Classroom Product

Last updated : 2024-02-28 16:59:02

Dear Tencent Cloud user,

Effective immediately, in a concerted effort to deliver superior product services, the Low-Code Interactive Classroom brand is formally upgraded.

Low-Code Interactive Classroom will remain faithful to the product philosophy of low code and rapid development, providing low-code solutions for swift construction of one-to-one remote tutoring, interactive small-sized classes, and live large-sized classes in the general education scenarios. As the brand evolves, we aim to offer richer real-time interactive product solutions in the general education scope, such as the upcoming Chatroom SDK product.

We sincerely appreciate your attention and support. Low-code Interactive Classroom will provide you with a more superior product experience.

Announcement on the Upgrade of Low-Code Interactive Classroom

Last updated : 2024-06-28 17:11:22

Low-Code Interactive Classroom (LCIC) has undergone a comprehensive upgrade for the product official website, client SDK, client API, and server API. It enhances the overall product stability and availability while the new LCIC prepaid monthly package is rolled out, including Trial Edition, Lite Edition, Basic Edition, and Ultimate Edition, which can unlock different editions for different applications (SDKAppID). For more details, please refer to Billing Overview.

Note:

For the detailed prepaid monthly package content, please see the table at the bottom.

Specific Upgrade Content and Possible Impact on You

The Official Website of LCIC Is Newly Launched

LCIC presents a brand-new official website. Please click here to have a view.

Client SDK Version Upgrade

The version of the client SDK of LCIC, involving platforms like Android, IOS, Windows, MacOS, TV and mini-programs, is changed from 1.6.x to 1.7.x.

For clients who have already integrated with version 1.6.x and previous versions, we will cease updates after February 1, 2023. If you want to continue employing LCIC, we will also provide maintenance and technical support for 1.6.x and previous versions until March 15, 2023. If you keep using products of LCIC, please upgrade the version to 1.7.x swiftly.

Client API Upgrade

LCIC has thoroughly optimized and upgraded the client API to simplify integration. See the client integration guide for details. Customers who previously integrated with versions 1.6.x and previous versions are advised to assess their business needs and choose to upgrade the version to 1.7.x.

Server API Upgrade

LCIC has upgraded the server API to Application Programming Interface 3.0 of Tencent Cloud. For an introduction on how to use it, please refer to Quick Start Guide. The new API document is more standard and comprehensive, with a unified parameter style and common error codes, and unified versions of the SDK/CLI and API document, which ensures a simple and efficient user experience. Supports all regions for faster connection to Tencent Cloud products.

Customers who previously integrated versions 1.6.x and previous versions should assess their business needs and consider upgrading.

Billing Mode Changed to Monthly Rental+ Postpayment

LCIC uses a billing mode of monthly rental + postpayment. Different monthly packages (Trial Edition, Lite Edition, Basic Edition, Ultimate Edition) are launched. For more details, please view the Billing Overview related content. If customers generate excess use in the current month, they need to use the postpaid mode. For details, please view the Billing Overview related content. Detailed deduction/fee deduction rules about monthly rental and postpayment can be seen in Billing Sample.

Free trial application: We offer a free trial application for Tencent Cloud account (UIN) holders who create an application for the first time in the Low-Code Interactive Classroom console. Recipients are granted up to 50 hours of general classroom duration per month, 10 hours of recording duration, 0.1T of storage space, and 10GB of live replay service.

Note:

If there is any problem about upgrade or migration, please submit a ticket or contact your sales representative.
