Welcome to the Tencent Cloud Domain Name Registration Agreement (the “Agreement”). This Agreement sets out the terms and conditions (these “Terms”) for the provision of domain name registration services from us to you (the “Services”). Please read these Terms carefully, as they include important information about your legal rights. By accessing and/or using the Services, you are agreeing to these Terms. If you do not understand or agree to these Terms, please do not use the Services.

1. The Agreement

1.1 For the purposes of these Terms, “Tencent,” “we,” “our,” and “us” refer to both the Registrar (as defined below) and the contracting entity set forth below in Section 4 (in the event the contracting entity is not the Registrar). “You”, “your”, “user” or “Registrant” means the person who will be the registered domain name holder (the “Registrant”). If the person agreeing to this Agreement is not the Registrant, then such person represents and warrants that (a) they are an authorized representative of the Registrant with the authority to bind the Registrant to these Terms, and (b) they agree to these Terms on the Registrant’s behalf.

Your use of the Services, and our provision of the Services to you, constitutes an agreement by us and by you to be bound by these Terms.

1.4 Tencent may amend these Terms from time to time by posting updated versions to the Tencent Cloud site. Updated versions will be effective no earlier than the date of posting or the date of renewal of your Agreement. Tencent will use reasonable efforts to notify you of the changes, but you are responsible for periodically checking these Terms for any modifications. Your continued use of the Services constitutes your acceptance of any amended Terms. Amended Terms are not applicable retroactively.

We and you acknowledge and agree that the third party beneficiary rights of the Registry Operator have vested and that the Registry Operator has relied on its third party beneficiary rights under this Agreement in agreeing to the Registrar being a registrar for the respective TLD. The third party beneficiary rights of the Registry Operator will survive any termination of this Agreement.

You further agree to be bound by the obligations the Registrar is obliged to enforce in relation to any registrant as set out in the RAA, all ICANN consensus policies, including (i) the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy \("UDRP"\) along with the UDRP Rules and all supplemental rules of any UDRP provider; and (ii) the Uniform Rapid Suspension System \("URS"\) along with the URS Rules and all supplemental rules of any URS provider.

6. DOMAIN NAME APPLICATIONS

6.1 Application. You are solely responsible for the information you submit to us and you agree to make your domain name application in such form as we may from time to time request or prescribe. You must create and maintain an account to use the Services, and you are solely responsible for maintaining and securing your account, as well as for any access to and use of your account by you or a third party. You must provide us with a current and valid address for at least one individual who is responsible for the domain name and its operation.

6.2 Grace Period. Subject to Section 13, you may choose to cancel your domain name within five (5) calendar days (the "Grace Period") after having been notified of the successful registration. Provided you have complied with the terms of this Agreement, you will be able to obtain a full refund for your fees if you choose to cancel during the Grace Period. The Grace Period does not apply to any renewals or transfers of domain name registrations.

6.3 Account information. You must provide certain current, complete and accurate information about the Registrant with respect to your Account information and with respect to the Registration Data Directory Services (i.e. WHOIS information and services) ("RDDS") for your domain name(s). Failure to provide us with up-to-date information or to provide us with such further information and/or documents in relation to the domain name registration as we may reasonably request, may result in a refusal of the registration application, a termination by us of this Agreement, and/or a cancellation of the domain name.

6.4 Domain Registration. You acknowledge that domain name registrations are not effective until the registry administrator puts them into effect, and until such date as we have informed you that the domain name registration is activated. Domain names are registered on a first-come, first-served basis, and there is no guarantee that your desired domain name is available for registration. You further acknowledge that the effective registration of a domain name entitles you to use the domain name in accordance with this Agreement but does not confer any ownership rights, including any intellectual property rights, on you.

6.5 Domain Name Period. Domain name registrations are only for limited terms which end on the expiration date. For domain names which are created as a new registration out of the pool of available domain names, the term begins on the date the domain name registration is acknowledged by the applicable registry. For domain name registrations which were not returned to the pool of available domain names, the term begins on the date the previous registrant's domain name registration was acknowledged by the applicable registry.

6.6 Eligibility Requirements. To the extent any TLD requires you to meet eligibility, validation or other authentication requirements as a condition to registering a domain name in the TLD, you agree that by submitting an application or registering or renewing your domain name, you represent, warrant and agree that:

6.6.1 all information provided to register or renew the domain name (including all supporting documents, if any) is true, complete and correct, and is not misleading in any way, and the application is made in good faith;

6.7.1 protect the integrity and stability of the Registry;

6.7.3 comply with any applicable laws, government rules or requirements, requests of law enforcement, or any dispute resolution process;

6.7.4 avoid any liability, civil or criminal, on the part of us or the registry, as well as our or the registry's affiliates, subsidiaries, officers, directors, and employees;

6.7.5 correct mistakes by us, another registrar, or the registry in connection with the domain name;

6.7.6 to enable the resolution of disputes concerning the domain name; and/or

6.7.7 comply with any other of these Terms.

7.Payment of Fees

7.1 You agree to pay the relevant Service fees in the sum, in such manner and within such timeframe as we will communicate to you. Your registration will not be effective unless we have received the payment for the relevant Services. For further payment terms, please refer to section 5 of the Tencent Cloud Terms of Service, which shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to this Agreement.

7.2 We expressly reserve the right to change or modify our prices and fees at any time, and such changes or modifications shall be posted online at here. and effective immediately without need for further notice to you provided that if you have purchased or obtained Services for a period of months or years, changes or modifications in prices and fees shall be effective when the Services in question come up for renewal, in accordance with Section 9.

8.1 Term. This Agreement will commence on the date you first use a Service, and will continue in full force and effect for as long as you are using any of the Services or have any domain name registered through the Registrar, unless terminated earlier in accordance with the provisions of this Section 8.

8.2 Termination or Suspension. We may terminate or suspend this Agreement and/or your use of the Services, as well as elect to suspend the domain name, or otherwise revoke the registration of the domain name, at any time for the following:

8.3 No refund. For the avoidance of doubt, there will be no fee refund when there is a suspension or termination of any Services for cause.

8.4 Termination by you. Subject to Section 8.3, this Agreement will be terminated by your (a) providing us with fourteen (14) days' notice and (b) successfully deleting, assigning, or transferring to another registrar the registration of all domain names you currently have registered using the Services.

9. Domain Name Expiration and Renewal

9.1 Expiration. You are responsible for keeping your own records and reminders in relation to the expiration date of your domain name registration and any other Services. We will send you a first reminder about any upcoming expiration dates approximately one month prior to expiration, and a second approximately one week prior to expiration. Should the domain name registration expire, we will send you an additional notice within five (5) days of expiration. All notices are sent to the registrant email address listed in the official contact information of the domain name so make sure your contact information is up-to-date to receive these important notices. You agree that you are entirely responsible for any risks and consequences that may arise from you waiting until close to or after the expiration date of the then-current term of your domain name registration before attempting to renew your domain name registration.

9.2 Redemption Grace Period. All generic TLD registries offer a thirty (30) day redemption grace period immediately following the expiration and deletion of a domain name registration. For other TLD, the redemption grace period may vary. During these redemption grace periods, you may pay a redemption fee (as communicated from us to you) to us to redeem your domain name, in accordance with any applicable redemption procedures. If you do not redeem your domain during the redemption grace period, the relevant registry will release your domain name and it will become available again for registration on a first come, first served basis. You acknowledge that the relevant domain name will not function during any redemption grace period after it has been deleted.

9.3 Renewal. You may renew your domain name registration prior to its expiration by submitting a renewal application on your account (save for any domain names that are in the redemption grace period, in relation to which you will need to contact us directly), in such form and manner as we may prescribe from time to time. If we provide this option, and you select it, your domain name registration will be automatically renewed for one year from the date one day prior to the original expiry of the domain name registration, subject to the terms of this Agreement (as amended from time to time) and provided always that your account has sufficient credit to pay the applicable renewal fees and/or has up-to-date payment card and billing information. It is your responsibility to keep your billing information up to date and we are not required to, but may, contact you to update this information in the event that an attempted renewal transaction is not processed successfully. If we are for any reason not able to take the payment of the renewal fee, your domain name registration will expire.

9.5 Renewal without Consent. We may, in certain extenuating circumstances specifically approved by ICANN, required under a dispute policy, or mandated by a court of competent jurisdiction, renew your domain name registration without your explicit consent in order to prevent its deletion. You assume all responsibility for any failure of a transfer irrespective of whether the transfer application is submitted close to the end of the relevant registration term.

10.4 Mandatory transfers. The domain name registered in your name may be transferred to another party without your consent and without notice to you if we receive a decision of an administrative panel appointed by a dispute resolution service provider approved by ICANN or by the respective registries for the purpose of resolving domain name disputes requiring such transfer pursuant to any administrative proceeding to which you were a party.

11. Change of Registrant

11.1 Registrant Change. You may request a transfer of your domain name to another registrant (a "Change of Registrant"). You warrant that the New Registrant has expressly agreed to be the New Registrant, and you expressly authorize us to take all steps necessary to register the relevant domain name(s) to the New Registrant. Upon completion of the Change of Registrant, you discharge us from all obligations under this Agreement.

11.3 Transfer Lock. You acknowledge that we are required to impose a 60-day inter-registrar transfer lock following a Change of Registrant, during which period the domain name will not be transferrable. You may opt out the lock period during the Change of Registrant process.

12. General Representations and Warranties

12.1 General. You represent and warrant, and agree that we will rely on your warranties given in this Agreement, that:

13.5 Malware. You must not distribute malware, abusive operating botnets, phishing, privacy, trademark or copyright infringing material, engage in fraudulent or deceptive practices, counterfeiting or otherwise engage in activity contrary to applicable law.

13.6 Domain Tasting. You undertake not to engage in the practice known as "domain tasting", i.e. the practice of temporarily registering a domain under the Grace Period and cancelling it before the Grace Period expires to obtain a refund, as a way to test the marketability or viability of a domain name. If we reasonably determine that you have engaged in domain tasting, we may:

13.6.1 deduct a service fee from any refund issued to you; or 13.6.2 refuse your cancellation or refund request altogether.

14.Liability of Registrar

14.1 Our Responsibility. We are not liable or responsible in any way for any errors, omissions, inaccuracies or any other actions by the Registry Operator arising out of or in connection with your application and receipt of, or failure to receive, a domain name registration, or arising out of or in connection with any renewal, redemption or transfer of a domain name. You acknowledge that the Registry Operator is the person or entity then responsible, in accordance with an agreement between ICANN (or its assignee) and that person or entity, or if that agreement is terminated or expires, in accordance with an agreement between the US Government and that person or entity, for providing registry services for a specific gTLD. The Registry Operator is therefore independent and separate from us.

14.2 No Guarantee. In the light of ICANN and any Registry Operators acting independently and separately from us as explained in Section 14.1, we do not guarantee that you will be able to register, renew, redeem or transfer a domain name, even if our system indicates that the domain name is available or you are able to complete an order with respect to such domain name.

15.DATA

15.1 Processing of Data. In addition to the Tencent Cloud Privacy Policy and Data Processing and Security Agreement, you acknowledge and agree that this Agreement constitutes notice required to be given to you in accordance with subsection 3.7.7.4 of the RAA, and you further consent to the data processing as set out in this Agreement, as required by subsection 3.7.7.5 of the RAA.

16.DATABASE OWNERSHIP

16.1 You agree and acknowledge that we own all database, compilation, collective and similar rights, title and interests worldwide in our domain name database, and all information and derivative works generated from the domain name database. You further agree and acknowledge that we own the following information for those registrations for which we act as Registrar:

16.1.1 the original creation date of the registration;

16.1.2 the expiration date of the registration;

16.1.3 the name, postal address, e-mail address, voice telephone number, and where available fax number of all contacts for the domain name registration;

16.1.4 any remarks concerning the registered domain name that appear or should appear in the RDDS database; and

16.1.5 any other information we generate or obtain in connection with the provision of domain name registration services, other than the domain name being registered, the IP addresses of the primary nameserver and any secondary nameservers for the domain name, and the corresponding names of those nameservers.

16.2 We do not have any ownership interest in your specific personal registration information outside of our rights in our domain name database.

17.DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 ICANN Dispute Resolution Policy. If the registration, use or reservation of your domain name is challenged by a third-party, you will be subject to the provisions specified in the UDRP and URS in effect at the time your domain name registration is disputed by the third-party. In the event a domain name dispute arises with any third-party, you will indemnify and hold us harmless pursuant to the terms and conditions of the UDRP and URS. If you or your domain name is the subject of litigation, we may deposit control of your domain name record into the registry of the judicial body by providing a party with a registrar certificate. The UDRP and URS may be changed by ICANN (or ICANN's successor) at any time.

17.2 Jurisdiction. You agree to submit, for the purposes of this Section 17 only (i.e. domain name registration disputes with third parties), without prejudice to other potentially applicable jurisdictions, to the jurisdiction of the courts (1) of your domicile or (2) where the Registrar is located. For other disputes relating to this Agreement, Section 20 applies.

17.3 Obligation to Monitor Emails. You acknowledge and agree that it is important for you to regularly monitor email sent to the email address associated with your account and domain names because, among other reasons, if a dispute arises regarding Services provided to you, you may lose your rights to receive the Services if you do not respond expeditiously to an email sent in relation thereto, in accordance with Section 8.2.

18.INDEMNIFICATION AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

18.1 Your responsibility for damages suffered by us or others. To the extent permitted by applicable law, you agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless us, ICANN, and the Registry Operators, as well as the contractors, agents, employees, officers, directors, shareholders, and affiliates of such parties, from and against any and all liabilities, claims, damages, costs and expenses, including reasonable legal fees and expenses, for third party claims relating to or arising under this Agreement and/or you conduct, including any breach of any of your representations, warranties, undertakings, covenants or obligations set forth in this Agreement, the Services provided hereunder, or your use of the Services, including, without limitation, infringement by you, or by anyone else using the Services through your account, of any intellectual property or other proprietary right of any person or entity, or from the violation of any of our or ICANN's operating rules or policies relating to the Services provided. You shall not enter into any settlement or compromise of any such indemnifiable claim without the relevant party's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. This Section 18 will survive termination or cancellation of this Agreement for any reason.

18.2 No unlawful exclusion. We do not exclude or limit in any way our liability to you where it would be unlawful to do so. This includes liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence or the negligence of our employees, agents or subcontractors or for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.

18.3 Limitation of liability.

18.3.1 EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET OUT IN THESE TERMS, IN NO EVENT SHALL WE, ICANN, AND THE REGISTRY OPERATORS, AS WELL AS THE CONTRACTORS, AGENTS, EMPLOYEES, OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, SHAREHOLDERS, AND AFFILIATES OF SUCH PARTIES BE LIABLE FOR:

- i. ANY DIRECT, SPECIAL, INDIRECT OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES; OR
- ii. ANY OTHER DAMAGES OF ANY KIND, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION:

18.3.2 EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET OUT IN THESE TERMS, IN NO EVENT SHALL THE AGGREGATE LIABILITY OF US, WHETHER IN AN ACTION IN CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION NEGLIGENCE), STRICT LIABILITY OR OTHERWISE, ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THE USE OF OR INABILITY TO USE THE SERVICES EXCEED THE GREATER OF (I) ANY SERVICE FEES YOU HAVE PAID TO US FOR USE THEREOF; OR (II) US$ 100.

18.3.3 To the extent that applicable laws (including as set forth in the Additional Terms – Jurisdiction-Specific) do not allow or may limit the foregoing limitations of liability, such as liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence or the negligence of our employees, agents or subcontractors, or for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or for any damage caused by our willful misconduct or gross negligence, these limitations may not apply to you or may be limited by applicable law. In such case you explicitly agree that our (or any such other released parties) liability to you shall apply to the maximum extent permitted by applicable laws.
