Announcement on the Renaming of Low-Code Interactive Classroom Product

Last updated：2024-02-28 16:59:02

Dear Tencent Cloud user,

Effective immediately, in a concerted effort to deliver superior product services, the Low-Code Interactive Classroom brand is formally upgraded.

Low-Code Interactive Classroom will remain faithful to the product philosophy of low code and rapid development, providing low-code solutions for swift construction of one-to-one remote tutoring, interactive small-sized classes, and live large-sized classes in the general education scenarios. As the brand evolves, we aim to offer richer real-time interactive product solutions in the general education scope, such as the upcoming Chatroom SDK product.

We sincerely appreciate your attention and support. Low-code Interactive Classroom will provide you with a more superior product experience.
