Billing Overview

Last updated : 2024-07-04 16:06:40

Billing Method

Tencent Cloud Mini Programs Platform (hereinafter referred to as TCMPP) currently uses the following billing methods:

Plans: You need to buy TCMPP plans first before they can be used for deduction. The validity period of a plan is from the day of purchase to the same day of the next year. For example, a resource plan purchased on March 1, 2023 is valid from March 1, 2023 to March 1, 2024. The minimum purchase period for the official TCMPP plan is one year.

Billed by calendar month: Fees incurred in a calendar month will be deducted within the first 3 days of the next month.

Basic Services

The basic service fee covers two parts: the resource plan fee and out-of-plan resource usage fee.

Plans: The official TCMPP plans include Standard, Pro and Enterprise editions. And POC plans include POC Pro edition and POC Enterprise edition. You can choose different plans based on your business needs. For plan comparison, see the following tables.

Out-of-plan resource usage fee: The fee charged for resource usage that exceeds the free quota of the Standard, Pro or Enterprise editions.

The following table compares the features of different plans:

Out-of-plan usage fees

When the free MAUs in the official plan has been used up, the excessive MAUs will be automatically billed in a pay-as-you-go mode.

Billing standard:

Plans	Standard	Pro	Enterprise
Costs	0.02 USD/MAU/month	0.015 USD/MAU/month	0.01 USD/MAU/month

Note :

1. If another billing method is agreed with your sales rep, please refer to the contract.
2. Pay-as-you-go mode applies only to official TCMPP plans. POC plans does not support pay-as-you-go mode.
