Click Domain Registration to view the registration process.

Note:

Domains are one-off products that are not modifiable or refundable after successful registration.

The domain registration, renewal, and transfer-in prices will be adjusted based on the market conditions, and these prices of a platinum domain may be higher than those of a standard domain. The actual prices will apply.

After you submit an order and make the payment, Tencent Cloud only submits an application as a registrar on your behalf, and does not guarantee successful registration.

According to the policy of Tencent Cloud International, the domain registration service is subject to a prepaid allowlist mechanism. If you cannot submit an order to purchase a domain, please submit a ticket to apply for qualifications.

Sorry for any inconvenience.

Both newly registered domains and transferred-in domains are regarded as purchases, for which you cannot use Tencent Cloud domain renewal vouchers.
